SUDAN: Reduced Concern Over Dissidents

President Nimeiri told the US Ambassador on Saturday that the provision by Egypt of four helicopters and crews and Abu Dhabi's gift of six helicopters would help Sudan to cope with the Libyan-sponsored dissidents who attacked a town in southern Sudan last week. Nimeiri said Sudan did not intend to ask the US for helicopters at this time. He also confirmed earlier reports that Sudan had carried out rocket attacks against dissident camps on the Ethiopian side of the border. [REDACTED] 25X1

Comment: The new equipment will improve the ability of the Sudanese to deal with the insurgents all along the border. Nonetheless, more incidents are likely. [REDACTED]
